

Date Night at Home Ideas

Date night at home can be just as rewarding as a night on the town. Set aside some time, free of distractions, and focus on connection with your partner. Look at this list together and pick one to try this week or highlight your favorites separately and swap. Get creative!

- Prepare a candle-lit dinner
- Read a book together
- Make a music video
- Watch a movie (don't forget the popcorn!)
- Have a picnic-indoors or out
- Order take out
- Enjoy a themed dinner/movie (I once did this with the movie "Prom Night"--prom dress and all!)
- Make fondue
- Have a bonfire
- Roast smores
- Have a dessert bar
- Throw a backyard movie night
- Watch a sports game
- Watch a concert
- Battle with a video game night
- Have a board/card game night
- Do a puzzle
- Create a DIY photo booth
- Decorate your living space for an upcoming birthday/holiday
- Go indoor camping
- Have a "no electricity" night
- Be artistic: Draw, do watercolor, paint, etc.
- Play Twister
- Have a Karaoke night
- Throw a Dance party
- Build a fort (throwback!)
- Learn yoga or try meditation
- Turn your home into a spa
- Talk about dreams and goals
- Plan a vacation
- Dream together about travel destinations
- Make a bucket list
- Take a personality or love language test
- Play a conversation starter game like Would You Rather...?
- Go for a Walk and talk
- Watch home videos
- Make a home video
- Go through old photos
- Create a photo book
- Make delicious food: Homemade ice cream, bread, pizza, donuts...!
- Have a nerf gun war
- Have a photography session and dress up from a different era
- Start a movie marathon
- Decorate mugs for each other
- Go star gazing
- Peruse Pinterest for fun meal ideas
- Cuddle
- Do anything DIY together
- Go indoor bowling
- Play music together
- Play Charades
- Set up a scavenger hunt
- Do secret acts of service

Cluff Counseling PLLC